

PEACHFUZZ

Last drinks, fellas!

After 4 years, 3 CDs, dozens of tours and countless millions of drumsticks, Peachfuzz is going (for now at least) to that great scungy bandroom in the sky.

Why? No, not the usual “musical differences” malarky. In fact, Cam, Stef and Steve still share similar tastes. No, it’s more due to Steve moving to Perth in a couple of weeks, and also general boredom with 4 am loadouts, all night interstate Tarrago crams, sticky carpet and Life On The Dole.

We’re very proud of our contribution to the music scene, both recorded and live, and we feel that we can hold our collective head right up and shout to the world that we’ve never put out anything less than our best. Yeah, OK, there might have been occasional dodgy shows - but jeez there were a lot of good ones!

The Ten Things we’re particularly proud of:

1. We were a 3 piece before everyone else was
2. We were doing “fuzz pop” before everybody else was
3. We played with the “geetar pop” format before everybody else did
4. We got bored with “indie fuzz pop” before everybody else did
5. We took risks and let the music come first, sometimes against industry wisdom
6. We survived Cameron’s disgusting socks, strange Tassie towns and shady industry figures
7. We’ve hardly had a bad review in 4 years, including from the US and UK
8. We haven’t taken ourselves too seriously
9. We’ve always dealt honestly with other people
10. We always put everything into shows (hence Cam’s socks...oh the sweat!)

The Final Shows

Peachfuzz is doing two headline shows to say See Ya to all our mates, and the people who have supported us over the years. They are:

July 4 (Thursday) - Punters Club, with Red Textas and Hoova

July 5 (Friday) - Corner Hotel, with lots of bands (Winterstock benefit)

See youse all there!
